Defining Services and Their Characteristics

Services are intangible, inseparable, variable, and perishable offerings that fulfill the needs and wants of customers. These characteristics differentiate services from physical goods, necessitating unique marketing strategies.

1. Intangibility: Services cannot be seen, touched, or stored, making it challenging to demonstrate value prior to purchase.
2. Inseparability: Production and consumption occur simultaneously, requiring close customer-provider interaction.
3. Variability: Service quality can vary depending on who provides them, when, and where.
4. Perishability: Unsold services cannot be stored for later sale, leading to challenges in demand management.

The Evolution of Services Marketing
