Motions are formal proposals by members to take specific actions, such as: - Adjournment - Reconsideration - Amendments Procedures specify how motions are introduced, seconded, debated, and voted upon. For example: - All motions must be seconded to proceed - Debate is usually limited in time per speaker - Members may speak once or twice on a motion, depending on rules - Amendments are debated and voted on before the main motion These rules ensure structured discussions and prevent monopolization of debates.

Members can propose amendments to bills or motions through structured processes: - Amendments must be relevant and properly formatted - They are debated and voted upon separately - Amendments can be friendly (agreed upon) or hostile (contested) This process allows for flexibility and refinement of legislation, encouraging collaborative lawmaking.

Disciplinary Measures and Sanctions

To maintain decorum, Orendain's rules stipulate disciplinary actions such as: - Verbal warnings - Censure or reprimand - Suspension or expulsion in severe cases Procedures for disciplinary actions involve: - Hearing the accused member - Providing an opportunity to respond - Voting on sanctions if necessary Maintaining discipline ensures a productive and respectful legislative environment.
