Strategies:

1. Practice positive self-talk to reinforce your worth.
2. Prepare small talk topics or questions in advance.
3. Remember that most people appreciate genuine effort over perfection.

Practical Techniques for Starting a Conversation

1. Use Observation and Context

Start conversations based on your environment or shared experiences. Observations serve as natural conversation starters.

Examples:

1. Noticing a book someone is reading: "That's an interesting title. What's it about?"

3. "Have you attended events like this before?"

1. Use the Power of Compliments

Authentic compliments can create rapport quickly.

Tips:

1. Be specific: "I like your choice of colors; it's very vibrant."
2. Avoid overly personal comments early on.

Active Listening and Engagement

Active listening involves more than hearing words; it's about engaging with the speaker.

Techniques:

1. Maintain eye contact.

2. “What was the most challenging part of that experience?”

1. Be Mindful of Non-Verbal Cues

Body language conveys as much as words.
