Historical Highlights: - Victorian Floriography: Flowers like the lily symbolized purity, while the red rose signified passionate love. - Regional Variations: Different cultures ascribed diverse meanings to the same flowers, adding layers of nuance. - Secret Messages: People used bouquets to send coded messages, often arranging flowers in specific patterns or combinations to convey complex sentiments. Common Flower Meanings in Floriography: | Flower | Meaning | Color Variations | ||| | Rose | Love, passion | Red (romantic love), yellow (friendship), white (purity) | | Violet | Modesty, faith | Light purple (grace), dark purple (faithfulness) | | Lily | Purity, renewal | White (innocence), orange (passion) | | Chrysanthemum | Friendship, well-being | Red (love), yellow (friendship) | | Orchid | Luxury, delicate beauty | Pink (grace), purple (royalty) | This symbolic language allowed individuals to communicate feelings subtly, often in situations where direct expression was too risky or impractical.
