Understanding the Biblical Foundation of Imagination

The Scriptural Roots of Imagination

Both Wommack and Andrew Z anchor their teachings in scripture, emphasizing that imagination is not merely a human invention but a divine gift. They point to several biblical passages that highlight the role of imagination, faith, and mental visualization: - Romans 4:17: Describes Abraham's faith as "calling those things which do not exist as though they did." - 2 Corinthians 10:3-5: Speaks of casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought into captivity. - Genesis 11:6: The Lord observes that nothing they propose to do will be impossible for them if they are united in purpose and thought.
